LOOKING TO 1912. All this talk about the lieutenant governorship may be partly due to the fact thatit looks as if the governorship question was as good as settled. All will welcome old-fashioned, quiet campaign, so far as the governorship is concerned -[Wat-

Mr. Powell, from his handlcap of deafness, would hardly be de scribed as well fitted for the office. Mr. Harnes lacks an extensive acquaintance throughout the state. Mr. Howe, with his record as speaker to give him prestige, backed by unquestioned fitness for. the position, is our one best bet for the 15 lleutenant governorship.

Maine was a little uncertain on the juestion of prohibition, but spoke emphatically in favor of direct primaries, the vote being 55,840 yes and 17,751 no. Two other votes were taken, as follows: Retaining the capital at Augusta, yes 48,295, no 30,419; increasing debt limit, yes 34,413, no 31,922.

State Bank Commissioner F. C. Wiliams of Newport expresses the beilef, in his annual report, that the banks of Vermont are in a stronger position, collectively and individually, than ever before. The report shows that the total deposits of the banks at the close of business, June 30, 1911, were $73,936,-855.52 an increase for the year of $5,-042,627.56, which is the largest increase in any year, except one, in the history the state. The number of deposiors during the year increased 8,198 in number. During the year interest amounting to $2,554,915.53 was paid depositors, being an increase of $216,096.95 positors, being an increase of $216,095.95 | Carl Hollander of Fort Worth, Texas, over the previous year. The commerical agencies, which deat with actual conditions, find every reason for satisfaction with present pros pects. Steady improvement in business is indicated by most of the reports which come from the leading industries and from trade centres. The bank clearings and the reduction in number of idle cars add confirmatory evidence of a kind that has always been reliable and significant. The harvests are not bumper ones, but the feeling in regard to them is not bad. Corn has passed the crucial month and shows a crop of 2,736,000,000, or only 389,-000,000 bushels smaller than last autumn's mammoth harvest. The spring wheat crop of 203,000,000 bushels is the smallest duce the year of 1900 in the Northwest. The crop of 455,000,000 bushels of winter wheat gives a total yield of 658,000,000 bushels, or 37,000,000 below that of 1910.

In the target practice of the Atlantic the toff the Chesapeake Capes, it is an-nounced, the minimum range will be 3000 yards—over five miles—and the maximum 16,000 yards, or more than nine miles. The mere statement indi-cates what modern naval ordnance is expected to do.

Card of Thanks. We wish to express to our neighbors

It is unfortunate that Maine did no speak emphatically Monday, one way or the other, on the question of constitutional prohibition. In a total vote of over 120,000 the result is so close that both sides claim a victory. The returns received by the secretary of state yesterday, with only six towns tacking, and the vote from these furnished through private sources, indicated a majority of 124 for repeal. With the possibility of errors in the returns the official count will be necessary to determine the result. The number of voters who came to the from Salem, Mass., but information was from Salem, Mass., but information was found that the could not finish the convented that he could not finish the convented that he could not finish the convented that he could not finish the vork of repairing Main street according to his original plans Road Commissioner D. T. Perry Monday morning threw up his hands and decided to rush the job through the easiest way in order to have it completed, if possible, before Valley fair week, As told in The Phoenix is week Mr. Perry was hopeful that a supply of larger trap rock than he was using at that time might be sent to him. The number of voters who came to the polls was 12 per cent smaller than last year, when Gov. Plaisted was elected on the question of submission. Since 1846, with the exception of the years 1856 and 1867, Maine has had a prohibitory law, phast to the town, were here and when they leaved the town, were here and when they leaved th The number of voters who came to the and the prohibition provision was made removal of the special clause from the constitution would have left the prohibltory law on the statute book, but the legislature would have been free to enact a local option law or any other scheme for regulation of the liquor traffic. The enforcement of the law has been very lax in some of the Maine cities, where it has been as easy to obtain liquor as in iteensed municipalities in Massachusetts.

MAIN STREET PLANS CHANGED.

Commissioner Perry Unable to Secure Desired Size of Trap Rock and Asphalt Company Withdraws from Job.

Convinced that he could not finish the phast to the town, were here and when they learned that the road commissioner was to use the small stone in place of the large which is called for in the specifications they told him that they would wash their hands of the job, as years of experimenting in road work had demonstrated what size was needed and demonstrated what size was needed and demonstrated what size was needed and the size was shown in the specifications for the work. Thereupon Mr. Perry began to have carted to Main street na-tive rock and enough trap rock to finish the job so that it can be covered with a lar preparation and then covered with dirt, as was done on Elliot street several weeks ago.

J. M. Fenerty of the Earber Asphalt J. M. Fenerty of the Barber Asphalt company took charge of a few men and the road roller, and is laying a piece of road from Freeman Scott's store to the north end of the Hooker building to demonstrate how a good road should be built. He is rolling the trap rock and will cover it, it is expected, with a combination of asphalt and macadam, which was what the road commissioner intended to do when he began work. Because the work now being done on Main street is a rush job, and is not what was intended, it is probable that the street will again be torn up next spring. Mr. Perry has completed his work of laying the rement approach to the town hall building. Three steps from the sidewalk reach the level of the first floor of the building and from the north end of the building to the south there is a broad platform of cement.

TIE AT KEENE.

Three Weeks' Practice, Made a Strong

The tennis match in Keene Wednesday between representatives of the North End Tennis club of Brattleboro and the Keene Country club developed unexpectedly into a hot session, the Brattleboro players, who had been practicing but three weeks, showing top form. The individual contests were somewhat mixed, but by mutual consent it was decided to call the team match a tie, 4-4.

The match opened with A. S. Thompson playing John E. Allen of Keene, the struggle going to two deuce sets, with many deuce games, Allen winning, 8-6, 8-6. This was followed by a hotty contested bout between Dr. H. P. Greene and W. Faulkner, Faulkner winning 7-5.

Raip Visciarello, whose arrest in a liquor raid is reported in another column, came into court again yesterday morning and part of his fine of $500 was paid by fellow countrymen and he was released, Attorney E.
